Winner—B. c, 4, by Deceiver—Miss Charmer. Start good. Won easily. Decide outclassed his field, still he seemed unable to get up first part with the pace slow. Kaiser likes the track. So does Takanassee, who looked promising in the stretch. Maud Adams was badly handled and made a wide stretch turn. Purse Proud favors a route. The Spider is fast, but cannot stay. He is evidently of low class. Scratched—Sandowne, 106; Miss Lynah, 105; Athy, 100.

Overweights—Decide, 24 pounds; Takanassee, 2; Maud Adams, 14; Vinita, 34.

Time, 12½, 25½, 49, 1:15½, 1:42, 1:49.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Buckra—Wand. Start good. Won easily. Double Quick was much the best at the weights. Marsian ran a sparkling race. He evidently likes a route, though his past denies it. He was too much used first three-quarters and finished gamely. Premier couldn't run a lick. He is a trick horse, if he has not had too much of it. Perseus was very short and overweighted. Refugee was badly handled and slow to get moving at the start. Scratched—Sir Play, 98; Azure, 89.

Winner—B. f, by Midlothian—Ricardo. Start good. Won driving. Midrica finished strong. She evidently runs her best only on a soft track. Percy looked like a winner in the stretch, but stopped in last sixteenth. Lucid was badly ridden. Pontifex made up a lot of ground last quarter. Money Spinner is a slow beginner. He finished strong. Summer is a fine looker and favors a route and good handling. He was badly ridden to-day.

Scratched—Glorioine, 102; Storm Queen, 99; Miss Tenny, 97.

Overweights—Ma Petite, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Hindoo—Ricochet.
Start straggling. Won driving. Savarin, on the rail, was lucky, but poorly handled. He is improving. Mohawk Prince was off badly and vigorously ridden. He was best and made up a lot of ground. He swerved to the outside in the stretch. That cost him the race. Lambent was too much used. Cannot stay evidently. Sapelo was carried so wide on first turn that he had no chance. He came very strong in the last half. Hi Daddy ran well under a bad jockey. Sandowne was pulled up in stretch. He favors mud.

THE FUTURITY OF 1897.

The Futurity of 1897 will be decided over the beautiful Sheephead Bay course, Tuesday, August 24. The Futurity's conditions were so intelligently built by the late Mr. Lawrence, that the stake may stay on the books for a couple of decades and retain its keen popularity and value. The 1897 Futurity closed January, 1896, with 778 nominations, of which 187 are void, 278 declared at $20 each and 220 declared at $70 each.

The present official estimated value of the 1897 Futurity is displayed below:

| Total | Condition.                       | Value    |
|-------|----------------------------------|----------|
| 187   | Void.....                        | $ 5 560 |
| 278   | At $20.....                     | 15 400   |
| 220   | At $70.....                     | 11 160   |
| 93    | Left in at $120.....            | 3 750    |
| 15    | Estimated starters at $250..... | 8 750    |
|       | Added Money.....                 |          |

Estimated Total Value.....$44 620

The Futurity always gets more starters than the public form of its eligibles warrants. Why not? There are few chances to win $45,000 or $50,000 for $270, and some rich races are not truly run—though there is little falsity about the Futurity.

Of the ninety-three present eligibles there are not more than five worth deep consideration on what they have done. Of the five there is one far and away the best. That is Howland.

It doesn't seem as if the colt can lose the race. He is sure to be well ridden, well prepared and the favorite. The two-year-olds of the year are not up to the average. Howland may be less good than Hamburg on more figures, notion and report. Either could, on recent public performance, win the race. There are four or five dangerous ones in the second Futurity division, though. They are, Recreation, one or two of Marcus Daly's band—now racing in Montana—Uriel of the Keene stable and L'Alouette of the Thompson stable.

While the form of Howland predominates he is in danger from the Burns & Waterhouse filly Recreation, who is a sweet racing article.

At this time and considering the care being used about Recreation, it seems to me that the Futurity result should be about this way.

|                            |   |
|----------------------------|---|
| Recreation or Howland..... | 1 |
| Uriel.....                 | 2 |
| L'Alouette.....            | 3 |

Here are the reasonable and intelligent conditions of the stake:

A sweepstakes for two-year-olds, foals of 1895, by subscription of $20 each, for mares covered in 1894, and of $50 each for the produce of such mares unless struck out by July 15, 1896, or $100 unless struck out by July 15, 1897. All starters to pay $250 additional, all of which shall go to the second and third horses, as further provided. The Coney Island Jockey Club to add eight thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($8,750); the second to receive one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the added money and two-thirds of the starting money; the third, five hundred dollars ($500) of the added money and one-third of the starting money. The breeders of the winner, of the second horse, and of the third horse, namely, the owners of the mare at time of foaling, to receive two thousand dollars ($2,000), twelve hundred and fifty dollars ($1,250), and five hundred dollars ($500) of the added money, respectively, whether they be the owners of the horse when the race takes place or not. Winners of $1,000, 3 lbs.; of two races of $5,000 or one of $10,000, 7 lbs.; of four of $5,000 or two of $10,000 or of one of $20,000, 12 lbs. extra. The produce of mares or stallions which have not produced a winner prior to January 1, 1895, allowed 3 lbs.; of both, 5 lbs.; the produce to be entitled to such allowance at the time of starting, whether claimed or not in the entry of the mare. Maidens allowed 10 lbs., which allowance shall not be cumulative. Mares may be entered by persons not their owner, the owner having the prior right. If a mare entered in this stake drops her foal before the first of January, or if she has a dead or more than one foal, or is barren, the entry of such mare is void and the subscription, if paid, will be returned. By filing prior to July 15, 1896, with the Coney Island Jockey Club, an accepted transfer of the produce with its engagement for the Futurity Stakes, the original subscriber will be released from any liability as to the engagement of the produce. Should a subscriber or transferee die before the race, the entry shall not be void, provided it be assumed by the then owner of the horse; notice in writing to that effect accompanied by the payment of all accrued liabilities for such horse in the stake being given within three months after such demise. In such case the entry shall be independent of all other racing obligations or entries of the original subscriber or transferee. Futurity course, about three-quarters of a mile.

There are ninety-three colts and fillies still eligible to the race. From them it is calculated that fifteen starters will come. The ninety-three eligibles are as follows:

JOHN E. MADDEN'S HOWLAND, BR. C. 2, BY HINDOO-RICOCHET.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Highland Park's fall meeting is to open Sept. 6 and run until October 2. Seven stakes, each of $300 guaranteed value, are to be given during the meeting. Their conditions are displayed on another page. The first meeting of the Club was successful and its events are worth the consideration of the better class of western turfmen.

The New York report of Cash Day's hopeless break down was out of line. The horse pulled up lame in last Tuesday's race but will train again. So Charles H. Carmichael, his owner, is informed by Sam Hildreth, who is training the horse.

From Detroit comes the news that Tarentum is dead. The news is probably the pilot of a ringing expedition with the filly. She is said to have been run at Newport as Miori, at St. Asaph as Wednesday and at Ideal Park as Fatina. The yearling brother to Ornament has been dubbed Method. Henry of Navarre's yearling brother is to be known as Knight of the Rose. Both are owned by J. S. Curtis, a South African millionaire.

Oakley has abandoned the mutual system of betting. The plan never had a chance there from the first. The foreign book has also gone. An eleven days meeting is to begin at Hamilton, Ont., next Tuesday, at which Mr. J. J. Burke will preside.

J. S. City—Come up to the office and you can get some information that will do you some good.

Kansas City declares to continue its present race meeting to August 25.

TOD SLOAN DESCRIBES HIS ART.

There was never a public notion that keen and skillful little Tod Sloan would ever under-rate his capability. He recently went to newspaperic parade of riding in general and Tod Sloan's in particular. Here is the parade:

"Riding a horse is an art, and I feel that I learn more about it every time I have a mount. Ever since my maiden race I have studied the horse and how to manage him, and I believe that I understand him pretty well. Of course, every jockey has his own particular way of riding, and I certainly have mine. No man has ever shown me how to do anything in the saddle. I was my own teacher, and if I am wrong no one else is to blame.

"To begin with, a horse is more intelligent and observant than most people give him credit for being, and remembers kindness or abuse longer than a good many men. It is on his feelings that I play, and I find that it wins. He realizes what is expected of him as soon as he passes the crowded grand stand or sees the starter on the block, and if he is of any account is as willing to race as the jockey is to ride him. I never use spurs, because I believe they inflict a punishment instead of acting as persuaders. A horse flinches under them and will not go kindly for me at least.

"I always sit straight in the saddle at the start, keep my arms close to my body and don't pull on the reins any more than possible. Some starts are difficult, and the delay at the post is trying on both horse and rider. In cases of this kind your mount will become restless and want to turn around, or make some other movement. If he wants to turn in one direction I never try to make him go in the opposite. Instead of attempting to rule him I try to act with him, and he generally appreciates the consideration shown him. I found early in my career that fighting a horse is an uphill game.

"When the word is given I bend forward over the horse's withers and take a short hold on the reins, having them run through my half-closed hands, which are together and resting on the horse's neck. Unless the distance is short and my mount is a weak-hearted sort of brute, I never go out in the lead. I let some other horse set the pace and incidentally break the wind for me. I find, like the cyclists, that this renders the greatest assistance. No matter in what direction the wind is blowing, there is always some resistance, because the horse goes much faster than it does, and therefore I make myself as harmless as possible, and the other starters in the race as useful as possible. Even if the leader drops back a length or so I still allow him to stay in front until the finish is close at hand. The closer you can be behind a horse or several horses in a long distance race, the better it is for you. I generally pull out at the right time and very few pockets are worked on me.

"When the home stretch is reached I get farther up my horse's neck than ever, if possible, and use all my persuasive powers, riding for all there is in me. But I seldom draw my whip. I always carry one, but use it sparingly. It is another instrument that punishes a little more than it persuades. If need be, I tap a horse a few times in the last hundred yards, but never did a horse swerve under me.

"As a rule riding at the finish looks harder than it really is. If the horse has had enough, you find out long before the crowd sees it, and whip-flashing and arm-working are absolutely useless. If he is game and has been properly ridden, he will keep trying, and spectacular work is again unnecessary. I believe that he appreciates victory and deprecates defeat.

Winner—Ch. h. 5. by Wagner—Mamie Cole.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving and coming strong. Shieldbearer was stopping badly at the end. Addie Buchanan ran through the deep going in the stretch. Van Brunt likes a route. Terrier ran his race. Watch Senator Morrill. He can do better. Such races are usually run falsely.

Winner—Ch. f. 3. by Whitney—Flaxy.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Win in a staggering drive; second driving and coming; third and fourth doing their best. Donaldson went to his whip at the sixteenth pole and dropped Easter Eve's head. She would have won further off had the boy sat still. La Crescent ran the best race. He was interfered with and had to pull up on the far turn. With clear sailing he would have been closer up and might have won. Golightly had no excuse. She was away running and went to pieces in the stretch. Southworth could never get up. Little Ocean was in his own way.

Scratched—Bryan, 104; Joan, 100; Vitrola, 91; Terranet, 100; Dad's Daughter, 100; Mollie King, 102; Little Sadie, 100; Ben Van, 93.

Winner—B. g. by Enquirer—Bonnie Meade.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up to a walk; second driving; third easily. Newsgatherer was a lot the best. He runs best with a strong boy on his back. The Plutocrat was raced to pieces in the first half. Treby bore out a trifle at the head of the stretch. All but Newsgatherer were staggering at the finish. There wasn't speed enough to make him stagger. Golden Rod likes about ninety pounds. Tony Honing was always outrun.

Winner—Ch. h. 6. by Iroquois—Nellie Van.

Post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily. It was a hard drive for the place. Pinky Potter just got up in the last stride. Freddie L T was the best in the going. The weather was in his favor and he did not bleed. Pinky Potter had a stormy passage and was poorly handled. Gray got him away from the post but made his run too soon. Little Music was used far too much in the first half. He was staggering at the end. Martin K was shut off on the first turn. Altogether he ran a good race. Prytania was all but left.

Scratched—Amanda, 97; Merry Monarch, 106; La Fiesta, 103.

Overweights—Prytania, 5 pounds.

Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden, third driving. Presbyterian was at home in the going. He raced Miss Gussie into submission the first quarter and had things his own way after that. Patroon ran a good race. Miss Gussie likes a fast track best. She labored in the sticky going. Elsie Bramble seems to have staled. She too prefers a fast track. Pug was always outrun.

Scratched—Virgie O, 93.

Overweights—Miss Gussie, 3 pounds.
